

1993

ARL

Jan. 9, 1940.

P. STOJANECK
SEMIARTIFICIAL CHRISTMAS TREE
Filed Sept. 12, 1938

This invention relates to a semiartificial Christmas Tree and has for an object to provide a telescopic metal trunk having sockets to receive natural branches from live trees such as fir or pine, and thus avoid the necessity of cutting down the entire tree to provide a Christmas Tree.

— Paul Stojaneck of Detroit, Michigan, 1940